

AJLI Awards

Since the 1950s, The Association of Junior Leagues International has received honors on behalf of member Junior Leagues. Recent awards include:

- 2008 American Society of Association Executives (ASAE) & The Center for Leadership Summit Award and Award for Excellence for Junior Leagues' Kids in the Kitchen program
- 2000 The Association for Women in Communications
Clarion Award for excellence in communications for Safe Homes Safe Communities, The AJLI Resource Guide for Ending Domestic Violence
- 1996 National Association of Hospital Hospitality Houses Inc.
Award for the continued endorsement and financial support of hospital hospitality houses
- 1995 American Legion Auxiliary
Award for strengthening and reshaping our communities through the active promotion of voluntarism and community involvement
- 1995 Christmas In April, Proclamation
Award for the Junior Leagues' role in launching home rehabilitation programs by providing trained leadership and financial support
- 1991 Magazine Week
Award for publishing excellence in civic magazines
- 1989 U.S. President's Volunteer Action Award
Presented at the White House for outstanding volunteer achievement
- National Trust for Historic Preservation*
Crowninshield Award for volunteer preservation activity
- 1988 Association for Volunteer Administration
National Service Award for exemplary work of national significance in the field of voluntarism
- 1988 Shelter Aid
Award in recognition of significant contributions to aid women and children affected by domestic violence
- 1987 National Foundation of Alcoholism
Five Markie Awards for AJLI's program, Woman to Woman, an excellent communications program about women and alcohol
- 1986 The Association for the Care of Children's Health
Award for outstanding service to children in health care settings
- 1985 The National Council on the Aging Inc. and VIAA (Voluntarism in Action for the Aging)
Certificate of Appreciation for significant contributions on behalf of older Americans. Also awarded in 1980